WITH NICE DWELLING OVERHEAD.

By virtue of the provisions of a certain deed of trust from William Kelly and wife da'ed April 4, 1876, and duly recorded in the clerk's office of Richmond Chancery Court, D. B. 107 A., page 414. I shall offer for sale, upon the premises, being required so to do by the holder of the note secured by said deed, default having been made in the payment of the same, on FRIDAY THE 1ST DAY OF APEIL. 1881, at 4% o'clock P. M., the property above mentioned, being the CORNER PROPERTY formerly occupied by William Keily. The property fronts 70 feet our Main street at the corner of Plum street, and runs back 179 feet to a 20-foot alley. There is on the corner to a VALUABLE STORE now do ug a good leastness, and has on the premises a fine well of water, stable, 31 necessary sut-houses. &c. &c.

Special attention is called to this sale, as the property, being situated in that cart of the city which is being most rapidly improved, as well as being on one of the best thoroughlares of the city, should command attention.

Tak MS: Whitst the deed requires cash as to expenses of sale and about $3.000. It is very probable that more liberal terms will be given at sale.
